9. Please explain why you would like to serve on the Judicial Nominating Commission and why you would be an effective member (300 words or less)

I have spent over 40 years in areas involving the litigation and legal process, with the last 23 years as an attorney. My responsibilities included the oversight of trial lawyers in most of the State and Federal courts. I feel this experience would be helpful in recommending candidates for Judge positions. Experienced and well qualified Judges make the whole legal process work more efficiently.
